

Northeast Guide Service, LLC d/b/a Northeast Whitewater - ONLINE PRIVACY POLICY

By accessing or using our site, you are agreeing to the terms of our Online Privacy Policy, as outlined below. If you do not agree to the terms below, then please do not access or use this site.

Collection of Personal Information and Privacy Preferences

When you engage in certain activities on our site, such as ordering products or services, we may ask for certain information via an online form or email. You agree that it is completely optional for you to engage in such activities. However, with these activities, you may be required to provide personal information; such as your name, mailing address, email address, and other personally identifying information.

When ordering products or services on the site, you may be asked to provide a credit card number. When you submit personal information to us, you understand and agree that Northeast Guide Service LLC., and its subsidiaries, affiliates and trusted vendors may transfer, store, and process your customer profile in any of the countries in which our company and any of its affiliates maintain offices, including, without limitation, the United States.

We collect information in order to enable, record and support participation in the activity or activities you select. For example, if you order and pay for a product online we can use the information you provide as part of our effort to keep you informed about product/service upgrades, special offers, and other pertinent products and services. In addition, we may provide certain information to affiliated companies or organizations that have products or services we think may interest you. Finally, all your personal information is protected from unauthorized access. We also recommend that you not divulge any passwords that may be provided to you.

If you do not want the information you provide to us to be shared with other companies, and you indicate this preference when you provide the information to us, we will honor your preference (see "Updating Your Personal Information Status" below).

Use of Cookies

When you visit our site (as well as most others) you can surf anonymously and access important information without revealing your identity. However, in order to improve our site, we use "cookies" to track your visit. A cookie is a small amount of data that is transferred to your browser by a Web server and can only be read by the server that gave it to you. It functions primarily as your identification card-recording your passwords, purchases, and preferences. It cannot be executed as code or deliver viruses.

Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies without notice being given. However, you can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie, giving you the chance to decide whether or not to accept it. For page locations that require an authorization (user name and/or password) cookies are not optional. Users choosing not to accept cookies in this case will probably be restricted from access.

While we may use cookies to track your visit. In this case our servers only automatically log the IP/Internet address of your computer. This information alone does not identify you personally and you remain anonymous unless you have otherwise provided personal information to our company.
